Appreciation

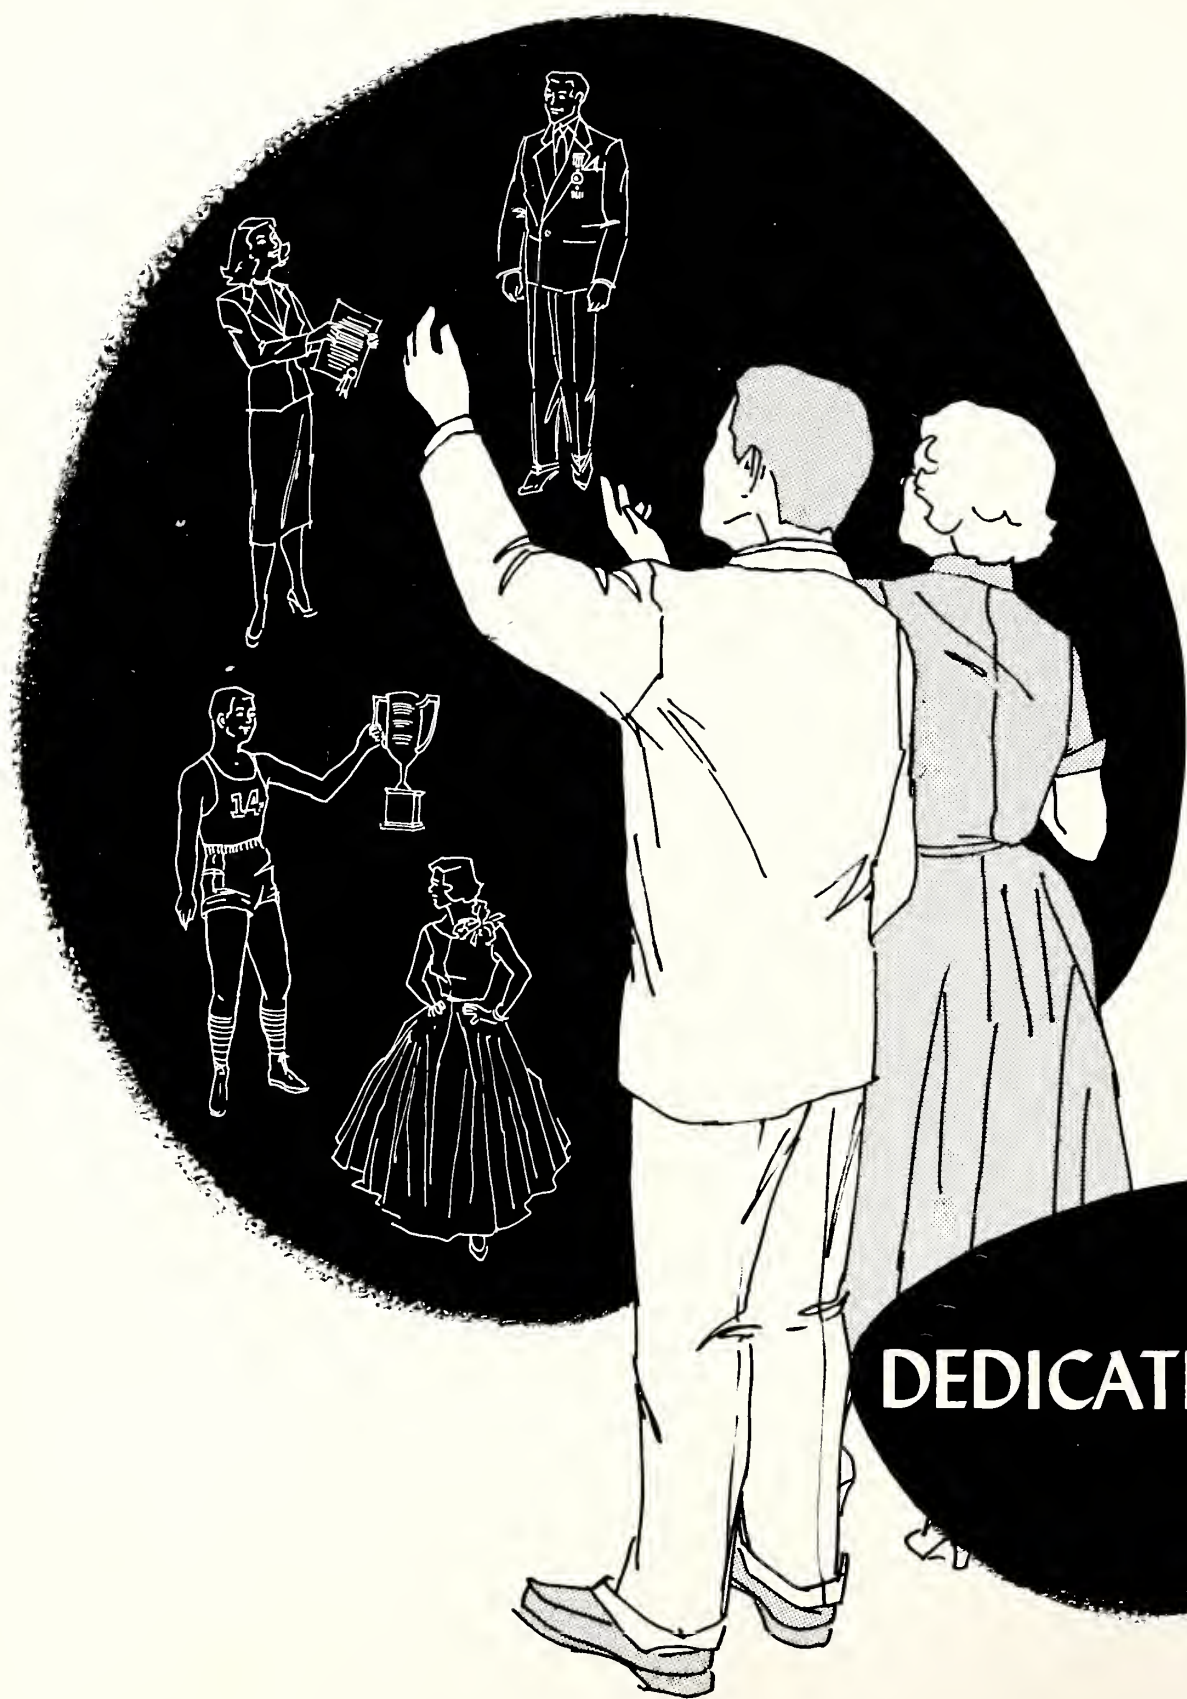

We desire to express our gratitude to Mr. Melvin Taylor, our county superintendent, to the county Board of Education: Mr. J. E. English, Mr. E. P. Dameron, Mr. Charles Greenlee, and to the Local Board: Mr. Fate Brown, Mr. Guy Lonon, Mrs. Leonard Swofford, Mr. Gordon Elliott, and Mr. Everett Boyd, for their loyal and wholehearted support of education at North Cove.

Alma Mater

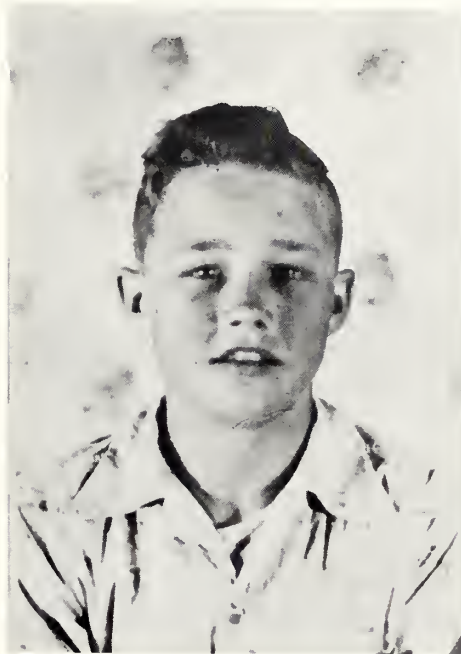

In the shadows of the mountains
Under the skies so blue,
Stands our dear old North Cove High School,
Glorious to view.
Sound the chorus, speed it onward;
Thee we'll never fail!
Hail to thee, our North Cove High School
Hail to Thee, All Hail!

In thy halls we formed our friendships
Dear old high school home
And to thee we pledge our hearts,
Wherever we may roam
Sound the chorus, speed it onward;
Thee we'll never fail!
Hail to thee, our North Cove High School
Hail to thee, All Hail!

DEDICATION

Dedication

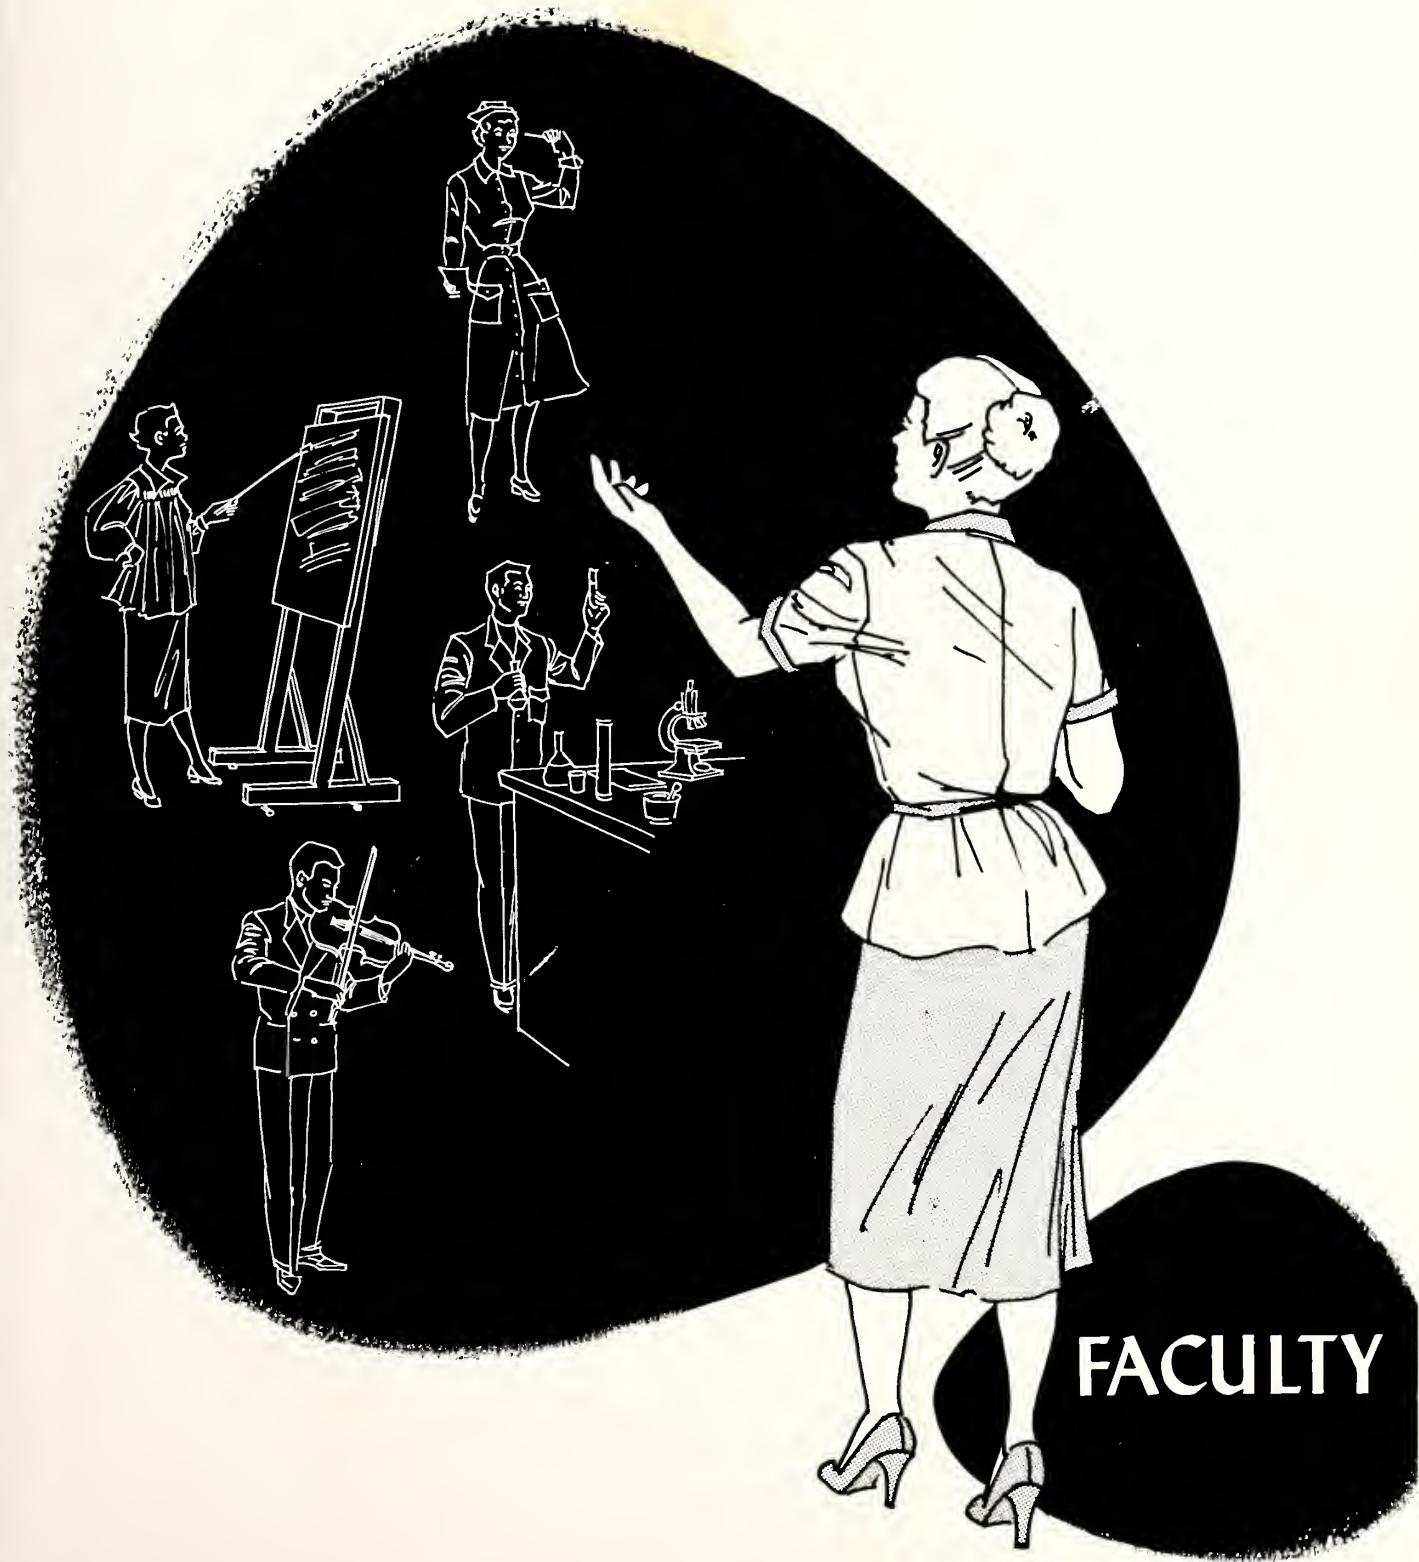

To the fond memory of our friend and classmate, to him who was the light and joy of our number, to him whose good spirit brought gladness and friendship among us, to Horace Ray Washburn, the Senior Class dedicates this annual.

LITTLE THINGS

It takes a little muscle, it takes a little grit,
A little true ambition with a little bit of wit.
It's not the biggest things that count, and make the biggest show;
It's the little things that people do, that make this old world go.

A little bit of smiling, and a little sunny chat,
A little bit of courage to a comrade slipping back.
It takes a kindly action, and it takes a word of cheer,
To fill a life with sunshine, and to drive away a tear.

Great things are not the biggest things that make the biggest show;
It's the little things that people do, that make this old world go.

Class History

When the school bell rang at Old North Cove High in 1941, there at the door stood five nervous little tots. Yes, there were more, but the outstanding ones were: Bubbles Goode, Helen Hensley, Doris Ward, Buddy McKinney, and Dean Jordan.

We made friends and stuck together through the primary and high first grade.

When we came back in 1943 ready to enter the second grade, we found in our midst a little redheaded scared-stiff boy. This was none other than Donald Hennessee.

Then came the third grade where Wayne McCall joined us. This year we had an easy time.

Carroll Hoilman joined us in the fourth grade and Charlynn Goins walked into our little group after Christmas.

The fifth and sixth grades were completed without any interruptions and then fate dealt a terrible blow. For in the top of the seventh, Tommy Brown slid in. Here we began losing some of our classmates, not the better half though. Anyway we drifted through the eighth grade.

Our first year in high school. Oh! What a thrill. We then had twenty-four in our class. Hubert Burleson joined us in the ninth grade. "Nice Surprises Come In Small Packages." In the tenth grade we lost all of our classmates but thirteen, an unlucky number.

Maybe it was unlucky because we lost two more in the eleventh. There were eleven of us left. This was the year we will never forget. We received our class rings and had our Junior-Senior Banquet.

At last we are members of the Senior Class of 1954 and are doing fine with the help of our class officers who are: President, Buddy McKinney; Vice-President, Helen Hensley; Secretary, Charlynn Goins; Treasurer, Donald Hennessee; Reporter, Dean Jordan. We have now reached the goal which we have struggled and toiled for twelve long and strenuous years.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1954, being of sound mind and body do hereby will and bequeath the following:

I, Charlynn Goins, do hereby leave my seat on the bus to Catherine Robertson and hope she keeps warm.

We, Don Hennessee and Tommy Brown, do hereby leave our place in physics class to John English and Gordon Hensley, and we hope Mr. Johnson won't throw his physics book away.

I, Carroll Hoilman, do hereby leave my wolfish ways to Rod Brown and I guess he can see.

I, Wayne McCall, leave my school bus to some good safe driver.

I, Bubbles Goode, leave my telephone calls to anyone who can afford to make them.

I, Hubert Burleson, do hereby leave my quiet ways to Joe Swofford and hope it helps him get along better in this world.

I, Doris Ward, do hereby leave my ability to write letters to Pansy Hollifield and hope she gets her man.

I, Helen Hensley, do hereby leave my ability to laugh softly to Shirley Harris and hope it keeps her out of trouble.

I, Buddy McKinney, leave my ability to get along with Mrs. Glover to Junior Ayers.

I, Dean Jordan, leave my height to Joe Swofford and hope he succeeds.

We do leave to all our beloved teachers and superiors lasting and heartfelt peace now and forever after. Seriously, we are thanking them for all the hardships and trials they have gone through in helping us achieve our goal, a high school diploma.

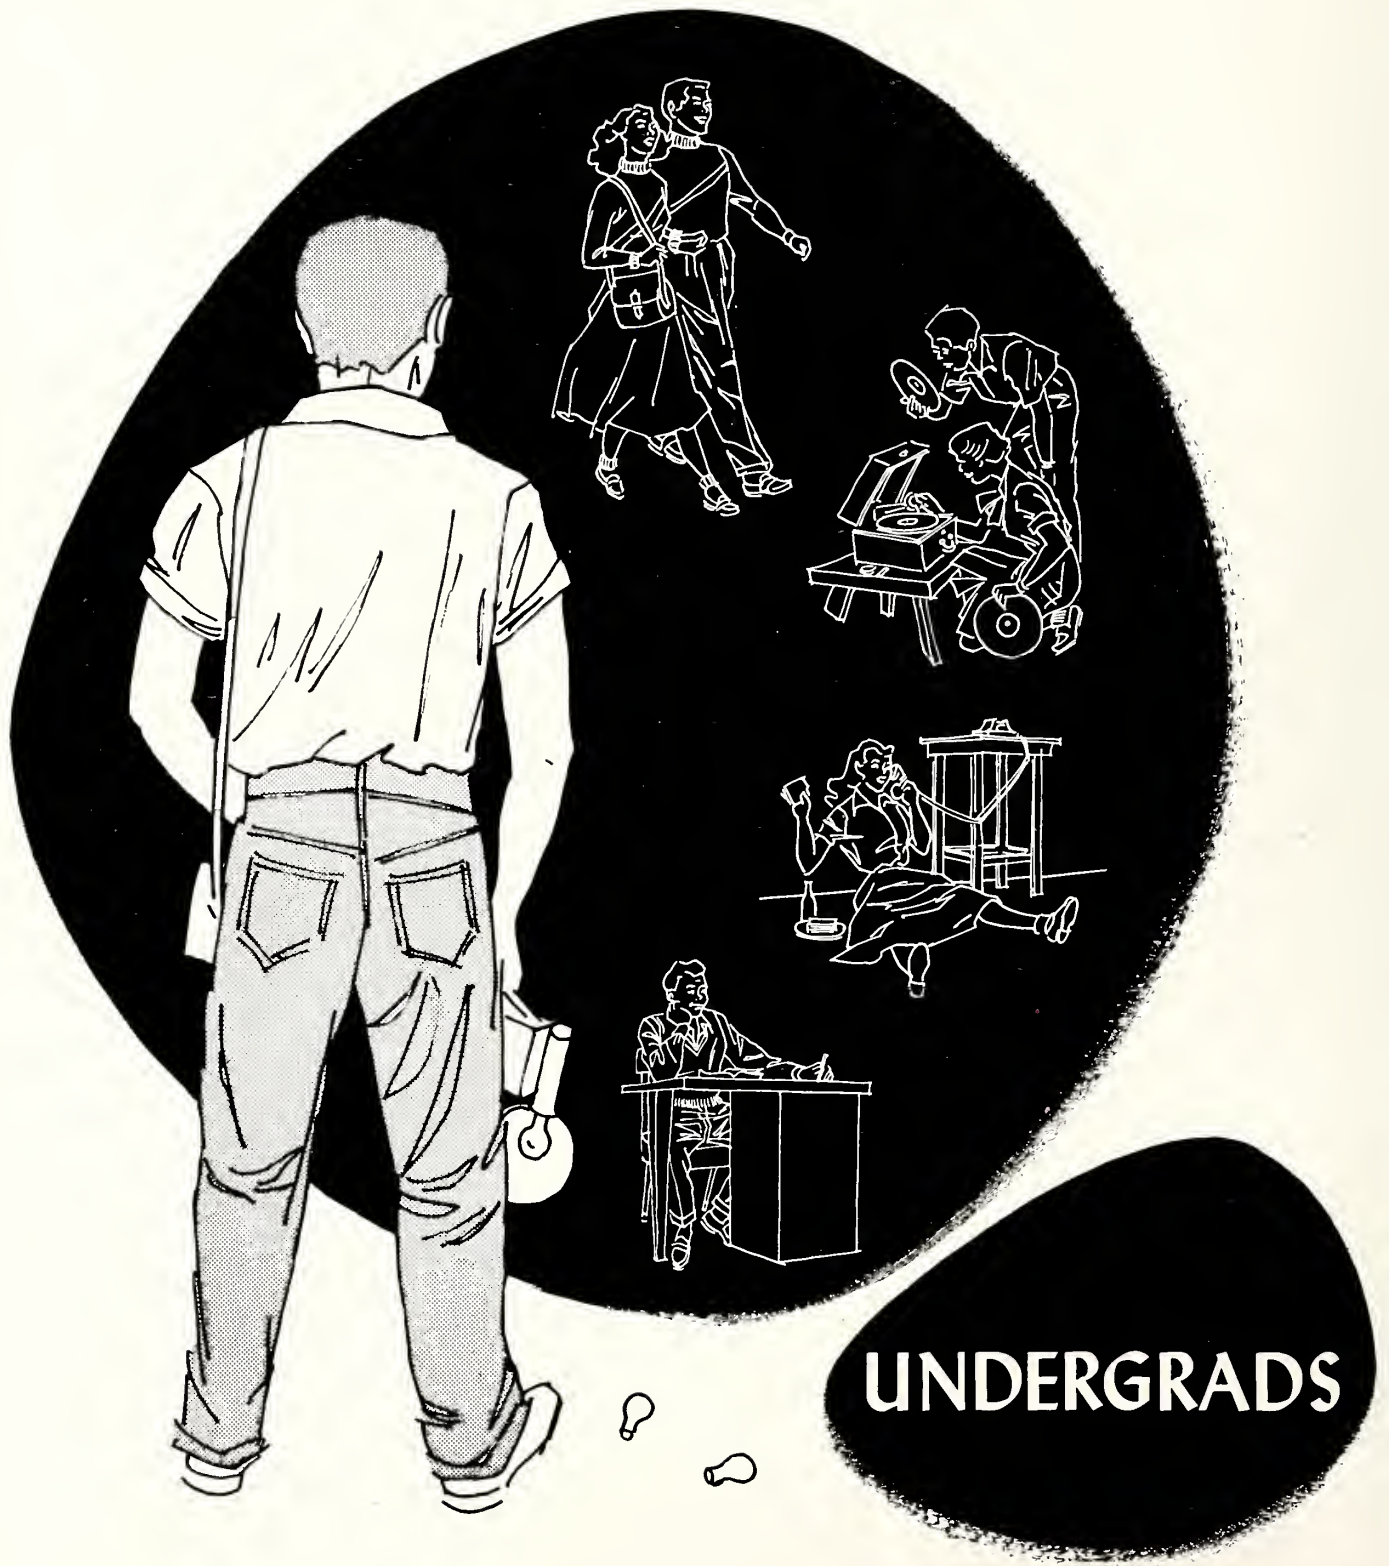

And we, as Seniors at last, leave the Senior privileges to the Seniors of 1955, and hope they get more of them than we did.

Class Prophecy

As I look into the crystal ball into the future in 1964, I see the same eleven Seniors. They have changed quite a bit, but not beyond recognition. I looked, and I saw, and I heard about this wonderful class. First I saw a well dressed secretary and guess who it was? Well, it was none other than Doris Ward. Gee! What do I see? An airplane. Yes, and who is this good looking hostess? Of all people, Charlynn Goins. Gosh! Who is this I see now? A head nurse, and is she giving orders. It is Helen Hensley and she surely has done well for herself. And who is this I see here? A lawyer, and is she dignified. It is none other than Bubbles Goode.

Oh! my goodness, who are these children I see running around? They look like little birds to me. Oh! here comes their father, and it is Dean Jordan. Whom do I see here, a college professor? Yes, and it is Tommy Brown. He is teaching at N. C. State. Boy, what a career. Look at this captain coming this way. He is small in height but high in rank. It is Hubert Burleson. Who is this? Why of all people, Buddy McKinney, a baseball coach, and he has a big team, The New York Yankees. Gosh! This couldn't be true. Wayne McCall, a schoolteacher. He seems to be enjoying his work. Oh! here we are at Madison Square Garden and who is this in the ring? A champion, and it is Carroll Hoilman.

Oh! what a headache, I must be taking the flu. I know what I will do; I will go to see Dr. Donald Hennessee. I know he is busy with all his patients, but you know Donald, he can always find time to talk to an old friend. Well, looks like the Seniors of '54 have done well for themselves. So I will say good-bye.

Junior Class

The Junior Class of '54 got off to a good start in our new high school building of which we are very proud.

Under the leadership of our class officers, everything has run smoothly and class spirit has developed. Many members of our class belong to the basketball teams and to various clubs such as the F. H. A., the 4-H, and the Pep Club.

The Juniors are looking forward with pleasure to their Senior year and graduation.

We, the coming graduates of North Cove High in '56, will always look back on our Sophomore year as a profitable one. We plan to make the next two years just as progressive.

There has been much interest in different school organizations. Three members belong to the 4-H Club, seven belong to the F. H. A., and six belong to the bus patrol. All members are sincere in making these organizations successful.

Freshman Class

The Freshman Class of twenty-eight students have had a wonderful year at North Cove High School.

Most of the Freshman Class took great interest in basketball and cheerleading. They were as follows: (basketball) Joyce Crisson, Patty Lonon, Alma Hollifield, Doris Boyd, and Velma Hughes. The cheerleader was Margie Harris.

Most of the girls belong to F. H. A. Club. They are Patty Lonon, Margie Harris, Rosetta Harris, and Shirley Cline.

The 4-H members are Kateria Stevens, Virginia Helton, Shirley Cline, and Glen Boyd.

The class would like to congratulate Mr. Johnson in making the year a very successful one.
